

Normal Labour & Birth: 10th Research Conference Programme June 2015 Draft

Day One - Monday 15th June 2015

09:30-09:40	Welcome Address, The Grange View: Dr Nigel Harrison , Dean of the School of Health, UCLan
09:40-09:50	Chair's Address, The Grange View: Soo Downe , Professor of Midwifery Studies, UCLan
09.50-10.30	Keynote Address, The Grange View		Dr Jim Zhang , Chair Professor, Xinhua Hospital Searching for a new partogram
10:30-11:00	Refreshment Break – Thomas Rigg Suite
11.00-12.30	Concurrent Session 1:
	Clinical Practice	Organisation of Services	Symposium	Factors Affecting Practice	Improving Infrastructure	Philosophical/Theoretical
	The Grange View	Yewbarrow	Woodlands	Boardroom	Winster	Carriage 1
	Definitions of onset of labour: a systematic review of definitions in the research literature Gillian Hanley	An investigation of the relationship between the case load model of midwifery for socially disadvantaged women & child outcomes using routine data Hannah Rayment-Jones	Healthy birth initiative: promoting physiologic birth in the united states Tanya Tanner	Becoming a mother at an advanced age: psychological distress, experience of childbirth, and satisfaction with life Vigdis Aasheim	Normalising birth in Nepal: how midwifery association twinning has supported the development of the Mangala Devi Birthing Centre in Kathmandu Joy Kemp	The impact of the risk discourse on the authentic lived experience of birth: a phenomenological perspective Mariamni Plested
	The labour progression study (LAPS) Stine Bernitz	Improving access to Midwife-led Care in Northern Ireland: GAIN - Guideline for the admission to, and transfer from, Midwife-led Units Teresa McCreery		Not addressing the root cause: an analysis of submissions to the South Australian government on a proposal to protect midwifery practice Elizabeth Christine Rigg	Influencing national guidance: a midwife and service user perspective Tracey Cooper	Constructing the 'good' woman: inter-subjectivity and symbolic violence during pregnancy and birth Susannah Sweetman
Poster presentation session: various topics Clare Hughes Alys Einion Kate Levett Claudia Oblasser Gilian Fenech Alison Macfarlane (See separate document for titles)	A scoping review of inter and intra-generational influences on pregnancy and birth outcomes Mindy Ebrahimoff		The work process and maternal and neonatal outcomes of an interdisciplinary team in the private health system in Brazil Heloisa Lessa	Operational research on the assessment of effective deployment, retention and performance of village midwives in Sudan Nasr Abdalla	Stories are difficult like that: a phenomenological study Lesley Kay
12:30-14:00	Lunch (Restaurant) and Poster Viewing
13.30-14.00	Formal Poster Viewing (posters accompanied by poster authors) – Woodlands Suite

Day One - Monday 15th June Continued

14:00-14:30	Keynote Address, The Grange View Professor Lisa Kane Low, Associate Professor, University of Michigan  Implementation of the science supporting physiological labour and birth: "It takes a village"
14:40-15:40	Concurrent Session 2:
	Place of Birth	Practice	Workshop	Women's Experiences	Workforce Issues	Media Issues
	Winster	Boardroom	Carriage 1	Yewbarrow	The Grange View	Woodlands
	How does social discourse impact on women's choices for vaginal breech birth? Karolina Petrovska	Shaping birth by connecting, protecting, and intervening: the nurse midwifery process of care and evidence based practice Mary Lewitt	Writing for publication in the International Journal of Childbirth Kerri Jane Schuiling	Swedish women's expectations about antenatal care and change over time: a comparative study of two cohorts of women Ingegerd Hildingsson	Maternity workforce and the implications for maternal and infant birth outcomes in England Jane Sandall	A drip feed effect can social media influence normal birth? Sheena Byrom
Interpreting outcomes for women who opt for freestanding midwifery units Lucia Rocca-Ihenacho	Developing midwife led care to support normal birth: an Action Research study Joyce Marshall		Women's recent experience of maternity care: changes or improvements? Jane Henderson	UKMidSS: a new national reporting and research system for midwifery units Rachel Rowe	Do midwives need to be more media savvy? Vanora Hundley
15:40-16:00	Refreshment Break – Thomas Rigg Suite
16:00-17:00	Pecha Kucha x 6 max (3 then 10 minutes discussion, then 3 more + 10 minutes)
17.45	Coach Departs for Optional Boat Cruise and Hotpot Supper on Lake Windermere (From bottom of hotel driveway)
17:15-18:15	RCM Better Births Initiative Presentation and Drinks Reception - Woodlands

Day Two - Tuesday 16th June 2015

09:15-09:20	Chairs Address, The Grange View: Professor Eugene Declercq , Community Health Sciences, Boston University, USA
09.20-10.00	Keynote Address, The Grange View Professor Mary Renfrew ; Professor, University of Dundee Midwifery – Key to quality care: Implications of the Lancet series on Midwifery
10:00-10.30	Refreshment Break – Thomas Rigg Suite
10.30-12.30	Concurrent Session 3:
	Obesity, Birth and Breastfeeding	Education	Data from the Netherlands	Antenatal Issues	Birthplace Design	Symposium
	The Grange View	Yewbarrow	Woodlands	Boardroom	Carriage 1	Winster
	Barriers to breastfeeding in obese women: a qualitative exploration Alice Keely	An ethnography: a community of practice in a midwifery led unit, and socially situated learning of student midwives Sarah Norris	VeCaS: a Dutch project to obtain valid data from Electronic Patient Records for midwifery research. First results: mid-pregnancy drop as normality of pregnancy? Symposium Hennie Wijnen	Pathways of social support during pregnancy Ilona van de Kolk	Towards a new architecture for birth Workshop Doreen Balabanoff	Promoting physiological birth in Malta: educating for change Symposium Mary Buttigieg Said
	An evaluation of Domino and home birth services in Ireland Maria Healy	Who have they become? From idealism to realism - a narrative analysis of the professional and identity development of student midwives Alys Einion		Antenatal care in the European Union: A survey on national guidelines in all 28 member states of the Community Annette Bernloehr
	The impact of pre-pregnancy obesity on birth processes and outcomes Eugene Declercq	Supporting the Wise Women: an interactive teaching plan to increase grandmother's knowledge Barbara O'Connor		Midwives and women's interaction: a feminist ethnographic exploration of the antenatal appointment in two models of care Elaine Burns
	Happy Birth Day: Overcoming the Nocebo Effect Film Kajsa Brimdyr	One Birth at a Time - Towards Normal Birth Film Karin Ecker	Women's suggestions for improving midwifery care in the Netherlands Paul de Cock	Preparation for labour and birth. The needs, preferences and experiences of first time mothers Helen Spiby	Co-designing better physical and psychosocial environments in the acute setting for maternity care Rupa Chilvers

Day Two - Tuesday 16th June Continued

12:30-14:00	Lunch – Restaurant
13:30-14:00	Formal Poster Viewing (posters accompanied by poster authors) – Woodlands Suite
14:00-14:35	Keynote Address, The Grange View Yoana Stancheva, Student midwife, Institute for Midwifery Research, Sofia Midwifery Untamed: Subverting the Status Quo Safely
14.35-14.50	Welcome to Australia! Trailer for 2016 – The Grange View
14.50-15.25	Pecha Kucha: max 4 = 24 minutes and 10 minutes discussion
15.25-16.00	Refreshment Break – Thomas Rigg Suite
16.00-17.00	Concurrent Session 4:
	Positive Respectful Birth	Psycho-social Issues	Methods and Outcomes	Women’s Experiences	Long-term Outcomes	Decision Making
	Woodlands	Yewbarrow	The Grange View	Boardroom	Carriage	Winster
	Women demand autonomy and respectful care in British Colombia Saraswathi Vedam	Preference of home or hospital birth in a Dutch low risk cohort: the relation with fear of childbirth and Sense of Coherence Anne-Marie Sluijs	Developing a research agenda from the Lancet Series on midwifery Holly Powell Kennedy	Findings from a normal birth stories study Susanne Darra	The impact of eutocic delivery versus elective CS on breastfeeding and complementary food introduction on incidence of pathological and skills develop of children up to two years old Silvia Manuela Leite Rodrigues	The paradox in risk perception in pregnancy and birth of women registered to give birth at a birth centre in Germany Nancy Stone
The meaning of a very positive birth experience: focus groups and discussions with women Annika Karlstrom	Building childbirth resilience: types of conversations with women and families to promote normal birth Jenny Gamble	The Spanish version of the Childbirth Experience Questionnaire: reliability and validity assessment F. J. Soriano-Vidal	Understanding low rates of normal birth: are women just playing the wrong game? Jo Dagustun	Perinatal biomedical and psychosocial risk factors of 1.5 yr old children’s emotional and behavioural problems Giedre Sirvinskiene	Decision making after a caesarean section - why women and their partners choose the out-of-hospital setting. A qualitative study from Germany Lea Beckmann
17.00	Book launch for ‘The Roar Behind the Silence’ – The Grange View
19:15	Optional Conference Dinner followed by entertainment by Cumbrian folk ceilidh band ‘Striding Edge’ – Restaurant

Day Three - Wednesday 17th June

09.30-09.40	Chairs Address, The Grange View: Mary Newburn
09.40-10:30	Progress Theatre – The Grange View
10.30-11.00	Refreshment break – Thomas Rigg Suite
11.00-12.30	Concurrent Session 5:
	Complications	Practice	Education	Perineal Issues	Methodological Innovations	Midwives Views and Experiences
	Yewbarrow	The Grange View	Carriage 1	Woodlands	Boardroom	Winster
	Women at 'higher risk' of complications planning birth in midwifery-led settings Jennifer Hollowell	Planned home VBAC: Maternal and neonatal outcomes and implications for shared decision making in the MANA stats Kim Cox	"Never seen it this way" - changing perspectives in obstetric emergency training Christiane Schwarz	Perineal repair by midwives in Ireland: a national survey of skills knowledge and experience Triona Cowman	Peer volunteering; an innovative approach to striving towards achieving normal childbirth in asylum seeking and refugee women AND 1884 childbirth in the UK, stories from refugees film Melanie Haith-Cooper	Midwives' Thoughts about Water births: A Q Methodology Study Joanne Woodward
	Severe adverse maternal outcomes among women in primary versus secondary care at the onset of labour in the Netherlands: a nationwide cohort study Ank de Jonge	Evaluation of the asymmetrical lateral decubitus for the rotation of occipitoposterior foetal position during labour: EVADELA multicentre randomized trial Anne Alice Chantry		Caring for women who sustain severe perineal trauma Hannah Dahlen		Dutch midwives' views on their role as promoters of physiological childbirth Suzanne Thompson
	Dying at life's beginning Franziska Parpan	'24 Hour Labour Line' - Improving experiences for women, birth partners and services Marie Nott	Transforming nursing students beliefs about birth Judith Lothian	Early career midwives and their lived experience of performing perinatal assessment and repair after vaginal birth: an interpretive phenomenological analysis Caroline Hunter		The kaleidoscopic midwife: a conceptual metaphor to support first-time mothers during childbirth across birth settings Sara Borrelli
12:30-13.45	Lunch (Restaurant) and Poster Viewing
13.15-13.45	Formal Poster Viewing (posters accompanied by poster authors) – Woodlands Suite

Day Three - Wednesday 17th June Continued

13.50-14.30	Keynote Address, The Grange View Professor Peter Brocklehurst , Director of the EGA Institute for Women’s Health, University College London The UK Life Study: Understanding lives – now and for the future
14.40-16.10	Concurrent Session 6:
	Pain	3 minute poster presentation session: various topics	Symposium	Normalising the Unusual	Normalising the Unusual	Discourses of Birth
	Winster	The Grange View	Woodlands	Yewbarrow	Carriage 1	Boardroom
	Management of labour pain; perceptions of labour pain by Dutch primary care midwives, a focus group interview study Trudy Klomp	Karen Jackson Colm O'Boyle MaryJane Lewitt James Harris Hannah Dahlen Hannah Dahlen (See separate document for presentation titles)	Babies Born Better (B3) international survey Soo Downe	Teaching strategies for the demedicalisation of the training programme in midwifery in Brazil Octavio Muniz da Costa Vargens	Mothers’ Perceptions of the Provision of Skin-to-Skin Contact after a Caesarean Section Jeni Stevens	Pregnancy and childbirth: negotiating competing discourses Jayne Garrod
	Skin to Skin in the First Hour: The Implications of Labour Medications Kajsa Brimdyr	Perineal and Postnatal Issues Does spontaneous vaginal birth increase the odds of postpartum urinary incontinence? Deirdre Daly		Normal vaginal breech birth: the clinicians perspective Christine Catling		Can I accomplish this birth? Perceptions of confidence. Time, and the capacity of the body-self in labour Priscilla Hall
	Pleasure and Pain: a critical ethnography of epidural use, knowledge and policy in a hospital labour ward Elizabeth Newnham	The effect of hands-off and hands-on methods on perineal status Maryam Shahnazariavval		Helen Cheyne Paul de Cock Penny Haora Julie Harrison Liz Whitney  (See separate document for presentation titles)	Assessing the psychological impact and acceptability of a first trimester screening text for pre-eclampsia James Harris	A balancing act in an unknown territory: a metasynthesis of first time mothers experiences in early labour Tine Schauer Eri
16.10-16.30	Plenary Session
16:30	Refreshments and home – Thomas Rigg Suite					